AUSTRALIAN SECURITIES EXCHANGE ANNOUNCEMENT

EDENCRETE™ ON DISPLAY AT WORLD OF CONCRETE EXHIBITION IN LAS VEGAS

The EdenCrete™ booth (see Figure 1 below) has opened in Las Vegas, USA at the World of Concrete (WOC) (<https://worldofconcrete.com>), a large international concrete exhibition that is held annually and which WOC states is attended by more than 60,000 concrete and masonry professionals.

Eden has a team of nine sales and technical staff attending and is anticipating significant interest in the various applications of EdenCrete™ that have been tested, and which are on display both on the backdrop of the booth and also in the marketing documents that are being distributed.

Eden has received preliminary enquiries from a number of interested parties that will be followed up at WOC. As with all exhibitions, the intention is to both promote EdenCrete™ and also establish contact with interested potential customers that can be followed up after the exhibition.

However as with all sales and marketing related to the conservative concrete industry, the normal course of events is that trials will be required to be conducted by interested parties before any sales are likely to occur.

Eden will attend the triennial CONAG show (www.http://conexpoconagg.com/visit/about-the-show/) and also the National Pre-cast Concrete Association's exhibition (www.http://precast.org/theprecastshow) later in year.
